Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

1. No claim 8 was filed. The claims 9-30 as filed have been renumbered per Rule 126 as 8-29.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 4, 10, 14, 19, 20, 24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

There is no disclosure found to a striker pin on the housing, rather the pin is disposed on the vehicle.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-6, 15-20, 22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Takamura.

Takamura has housing 1, locking member 31, engaging member 33, axes 37, 53, and biasing member 39.

Art Unit: 3612

As to claim 2, see portions 45, 59.

As to claim 3, see teeth at 45, 59, a plurality, and asymmetrical.

As to claim 5, see pawl 45 and lever 57.

As to claim 6, the spring is a coil spring 39.

As to claim 15, the point of engagement between members 31, 33 is between the axes 37,53. A plane in common with the point of engagement and the axes 37 is inherent as a plane may be defined by a line between two points.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 7-14, 21, 23-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Takamura in view of the prior art as admitted by applicant.

Applicant admits on page 1 of the specification that engaging and locking members in the prior art each have a plurality of teeth. As a result, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill to provide in Takamura a plurality of teeth as admitted by applicant in order to ensure the requisite engagement for variations in pin/latch position.

Art Unit: 3612

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. All detail engaging and locking members.
